

Courses offered by the Open Science University Library of Bern

The Data Stewards at the Open Science Research Data Management Team offer individual support and training sessions as well as workshops based on your needs for you and your team on request. Please contact us via openscience@unibe.ch.

“How to” training series in research data management:

- How to comply with the Open Research Data funding agencies requirements
- How to write and update a Data Management Plan
- How to pre-register a study
- How to manage research data ethically
- How to organize research data
- How to efficiently document research data?
- How to store research data
- How to publish and license research data

Open Science and Research Data

- 5 tips on using social media data in research
- Roadmap: Sensitive data in human and medical sciences

BORIS Portal

- Research Data and Projects – Workshops up on request

Transferable Skills Program for (Post)Docs

- Introduction to research data management (ECTS 1). Registration is open.